

FREE Continuing Legal Education Seminar

Milwaukee's new Long Term Care Programs for Adults with Disabilities

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 2010*
12:30 TO 4:00 PM

Location: INDEPENDENCEFIRST
540 South 1st St., Milwaukee
(Free surface parking available)
Approved for 3 CLEs
Cost: FREE

On November 1, 2009, Milwaukee County joined surrounding counties in transitioning to the Medicaid long-term care programs of Family Care/Partnership/IRIS to adults age 18-59 with disabilities, to support community living. This CLE training will help attorneys, including GAL's, adversary counsel in Watts reviews, and estate planners best advocate for their clients. Training topics will include:

- Differences between programs
- Functional Eligibility
- Financial Eligibility
- Enrollment Process
- Developing the Care Plan: Outcomes and Individual Service Plan
- Member Rights, Grievances and Appeals
- Role of Attorney, GAL and Interplay with Guardianship and APS

Faculty: Attorneys Betsy Abramson, Sarah Pitsoulakis, Lisa Foley and Mitch Hagopian, Disability Rights Wisconsin; Patricia Nelson, Nelson, Irving & Waefler, S.C.; and Judge John Di Motto, Milwaukee Circuit Court.

To register, contact DRW at (414) 773-4646, and indicate you are calling to register for the 3/19/10 Family Care & IRIS training.

*NOTE: This is a rescheduling of the January 7, 2010 program that was cancelled due to snow.

